

HAMILTON

We're writing the future of risk.

Hamilton Insurance Group, Ltd. ("Hamilton") is a Bermuda-headquartered company that underwrites specialty insurance and reinsurance risks on a global basis through its wholly-owned subsidiaries. Hamilton leverages analytics and research to create underwriting and investment value for its clients and shareholders.

We're looking for a Financial Analyst

In this newly created Bermuda-based role, reporting to the Chief Executive Officer, Hamilton Re, Ltd. and working closely with the Bermuda Chief Financial Officer, you'll work on a diverse range of initiatives providing analytical support for business decision making. This role is ideally suited to someone with a background in financial analysis that can help build operational efficiencies to support business strategies, capabilities and processes.

What you will help us do

- Provide research and analytics in support of existing and new business opportunities
- Assist Bermuda CEO and Bermuda CFO with the production of written commentary, presentations, management information and analysis
- Perform ongoing research and analysis of market and peers
- Support the execution and tracking against our strategic goals
- Develop financial models and enhance existing reporting tools
- Review existing processes and identify opportunities for improvement

What you require for the role

- Minimum of 2 years relevant experience in a similar role or an academic background demonstrating strong financial/analytical aptitude
- Progress towards a CFA or a Master's in Business in Administration would be preferred
- Proficient in financial modelling concepts
- Strong PowerPoint skills
- Experience with SNL (S&P Global Market Intelligence) would be advantageous
- Strong fluency with Excel formulas and functions
- Exceptional analytical and data gathering skills
- Excellent written and oral communication and presentation skills
- Detail oriented with the ability to support management reporting requirements
- Passion to learn and grow
- Self-motivated with an ability to work well under pressure and manage multiple projects and priorities in an open plan, fast-paced environment
- Commitment to collaboration, with ability to work both independently and as part of a team

Appropriate candidates will be invited to show examples of their analytic work and/or take an Excel assessment.
